

The South Carolina Silent Witness Story

Report on Domestic Violence Homicide Victims from 2009

Yolanda Knox
October 1, 2010

This year's ceremony will mark the thirteenth anniversary of Silent Witness.

In 2009, there were a total of 33 people murdered by a household member, according to the South Carolina¹ definition. Of those 33 people, 31 were women, constituting 94% of the total, and 2 were men, constituting 6% of the total.

The demographics of the victims were as follows: 42% were Black, 52% were White, 3% were Hispanic and 3% were Asian. The average age of these victims was 39 years old.

The Office of the Attorney General, through its S.T.O.P. Violence Against Women program, collected the data by contacting every Sheriff's Office, Coroner's Office, Police Department and Solicitor's Office in the State. Those offices were provided with a victim information sheet to complete and asked to provide any incident reports related to domestic homicide victims. As always, these offices were gracious and provided this Office with an abundance of information. In addition, all information was crosschecked for accuracy with the records of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

Twenty counties reported one or more domestic homicides for 2009.

Guns were the primary weapon used in these homicides. In 64% of the cases, a gunshot wound was listed as the primary cause of death. Knives were used in 15% of the cases; in 12% of the cases the victim was beaten to death (by hand); and in 9% of the cases another form of weapon was used.

The courts have disposed of only six cases. There are fifteen trials pending, eleven defendants have committed suicide and one suspect is still at large but an arrest warrant has been issued.

Attached to this document are county-by-county statistics and statewide graphs depicting the statistics mentioned in this report.

¹ §16-25-10 defines "household member" as spouses, former spouses, persons who have a child in common, or a male and female who are cohabiting or formerly have cohabited.
